

OSCLG seeks nominations for eight annual awards. A nomination letter, including appropriate supporting materials and complete contact information for nominees should be sent to the chair of the award committee by June 15, 2008.

Outstanding Undergraduate Paper or Creative Project: The committee will select one outstanding undergraduate paper or project concerned with communication, language and gender. Student papers and projects must be submitted by a faculty advisor, and must have been completed between January 1, 2007 and May 1, 2008. Send three copies of the nominated paper to Co-chairs Rebecca Dohrman and Elizabeth Petre, 452 Rockhill Drive, Lafayette, IN 47909. For more information, contact: Rebecca Dohrman at rdohrman@purdue.edu

Outstanding Conference Paper: The committee will select an outstanding conference paper concerned with communication, language and gender which was presented at a regional, national, or international conference between January 1, 2007 and December 31, 2007. Self-nominations are accepted. Send three copies of the nominated paper to: Dr. Jay Baglia, Medical Educator, Lehigh Valley Hospital and Health Network, Family Medicine and Medical Education, School of Nursing, 1628 W. Chew Street, Allentown, Pennsylvania 18102. For more information contact Dr. Baglia at: jaybags01@hotmail.com

Outstanding Published Article or Chapter in an Anthology: The committee will select one article or chapter in an anthology concerned with communication, language and gender published between January 1, 2007 and December 31, 2007. Self-nominations are accepted. Send three copies of the article or chapter to Dr. Robyn Remke, Department of Intercultural Communication and Management, Copenhagen Business School, Porcelanhavn 18a; DK-2000 Frederiksberg, Denmark. For more information, contact Dr. Remke at: rr.ikl@cbs.dk

Outstanding Book Award: The committee will select one outstanding book concerned with communication, language and gender which was published during the 2007 calendar year. Self-nominations are accepted. Three copies of the book should be mailed to Committee Co-Chairs Dr. Jay Baglia and Dr. Robyn Remke.

Send two copies to: Dr. Jay Baglia, Medical Educator, Lehigh Valley Hospital and Health Network, Family Medicine and Medical Education, School of Nursing, 1628 W. Chew Street, Allentown, Pennsylvania 18102.

Send one copy to: Dr. Robyn Remke, Department of Intercultural Communication and Management, Copenhagen Business School, Porcelanhavn 18a; DK-2000 Frederiksberg, Denmark. For more information, contact Dr. Remke at: rr.ikl@cbs.dk

Kramarae Outstanding Dissertation Award: The dissertation must be completed between January 1, 2007 and June 1, 2008. The nominating process has two stages. First, the person must be nominated by a faculty advisor. Second, the nominated person should submit (1) a self-authored summary of approximately 30 pages and (2) three copies on disk of the entire dissertation to Dr. Alice Deakins, 341 West 24th #3G, New York NY 10011. Contact Dr. Deakins with any questions at: deakinsa@wpunj.edu

Outstanding Thesis Award: The committee will select one outstanding thesis concerned with communication, language and gender. It must be nominated by the faculty advisor, and have been completed between January 1, 2007 and December 31, 2007. Three copies of the thesis should be sent to Dr. Trina J. Wright, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, 244 Lincoln Hall, MC-456, 702 South Wright Street, Urbana, IL 61801. For more information contact Dr. Wright at tjw23@uiuc.edu

Special Award: A special award may be made to anyone within or outside academe who has made significant contributions to the advancement of equality between the sexes. Of special interest are those persons who have aided the advancement of women. These contributions to the advancement of women in or outside of academe may be made through one or more of the following: scholarship, teaching, administration, mentoring, authorship, leadership service, or other activities that have positively influenced the lives of women. Send three copies of a letter of nomination and supporting materials to Committee Co-chairs Dr. Laura Ellingson and Dr. Linda Seward. Send three copies of a letter of nomination and supporting materials to Laura L. Ellingson, Dept. of Communication, Santa Clara University, 500 El Camino Real, Santa Clara, CA 950503. If you have any questions, contact Dr. Ellingson at lellingson@scu.edu.

Creative Expression Award: The committee will select one outstanding piece of creative expression such as artwork in any medium, multi-media project, collection of poetry, work of fiction, or other creative form that embodies themes of communication, language, and gender. Nominated works must be those that have been shared with others in a formal outlet such as publication or display as part of a juried show. Theses and dissertations are not eligible to be nominated for this award. If possible, three copies (or photographs) of the work should be submitted to the committee chair. Please do not send original artwork. Please contact the committee chair with questions regarding suitability for nomination and/or logistical issues with submission. Committee chair: Dr. Victoria Newsom, Communication Studies, 5151 State University Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90230. Contact Dr. Newsom with any questions at vnewsom@calstatela.edu

Feminist Teacher-Mentor Award: Call for nominations: Feminist Teacher-Mentor Award OSCLG is seeking nominations for exemplary teacher-mentor feminists who have inspired students and colleagues by modeling feminist ideals of caring, community power-sharing, and commitment while also earning individual and collaborative records of achievement. Nominations are encouraged for either senior faculty members or non-tenured faculty members (or graduate students, adjunct faculty, or instructors). The award process involves two stages. The first stage is the nominating stage and the second stage involves additional support and a statement from the nominee. For more details, contact: Dr. Renee Houston, Department of Communication Studies, University of Puget Sound, 1500 N. Warner St., Tacoma, WA 98416-1008, (253) 879-3332, rhouston@ups.edu